CONTENTS OF VOLUME 136

No. 1, January 1963

The Application of Serial Angiography to Diagnosis of the Smallest Cerebral Angiomatous Malformations. Hans-Peter Jensen, Joel Brumlik and Benjamin Boshes 1

The Psychopharmacology of Phenothiazine Compounds: A Comparative Study of the Effects of Chlorpromazine, Promethazine, Trifluoperazine and Perphenazine in Normal Males. I: Introduction, Aims and Methods. Alberto DiMascio, Leston L. Havens and Gerald L. Klerman 15

The Role of Fear in Electroconvulsive Treatment. Evelyn Crumpton, Norman Q. Brill, Samuel Eiduson and Edward Geller 29

The Significance of Syndrome Shift and Late Syndrome Association in Psychosomatic Medicine. David M. Kissen 34

The Psychiatrist in Fiction. Charles Winick 43

Continuing Problems in the Relationship between Training in Psychiatry and in Psychoanalysis in the U.S.A. Eugene B. Brody 58

Attitudes of Psychiatric Patients toward Treatment, Psychiatrists and Mental Hospitals. Malcolm D. Gynther, Marvin Reznikoff and Melba Fishman 68

Hospitalized Patients' Attitudes Toward Mental Health Professionals and Mental Patients. Burton L. Backner and R. David Kissinger 72

The Attitudes of Mothers of Hospitalized Patients. Alexander Tolor and William Rafferty 76

Psychiatric Patients' Views of Mental Illness, Hospitalization and Treatment. Nelson F. Jones, Marvin W. Kahn and John M. Macdonald 82

Brief Communication. William Offenkrantz and Edward Wolpert 88

Book Reviews 91

No. 2, February 1963

What Can the Psychiatrist Contribute to the Issue of Criminal Responsibility? Manfred S. Guttmacher 103

The Syndromes of the Tentorial Notch. A. Earl Walker 118

Hereditary Ataxia of Rabbits: Identification of Glycogen in Hind-Brain Lesions. James L. O'Leary, Paul B. Sawin and Paul E. Stohr 130

Eye Movements, Attention and Hypnosis. Marco Amadeo and Charles Shagass 139

The Structure of the Mothering Encounter. Natalie Shainess 146

Jokes Among Southern Negroes: The Revelation of Conflict. Arthur J. Prange, Jr. and M. M. Vitols 162

The Psychopharmacology of Phenothiazine Compounds: A Comparative Study of the Effects of Chlorpromazine, Promethazine, Trifluoperazine and Perphenazine in Normal Males. II: Results and Discussion. Alberto DiMascio, Leston L. Havens and Gerald L. Klerman 168

How the Psychiatrist Appears to His Colleagues. Roman N. Anshin and Evelyn Crumpton 187

Book Reviews 196

No. 3, March 1963

Variability of the Palmomental Reflex. James K. McDonald, John J. Kelley, Larry D. Brock and Elmer J. Bartunek 207

Familial Schizophrenia as Defined by Nailfold Capillary Pattern and Selected Psychiatric Traits. Hildegard Rand Maricq 216

Parent and Child in the Development of the Oedipus Complex. George Mandler 227

The Psychodynamics of Suicide. Herbert Hendin 236

Family Structure of Young Adult Negro Male Mental Patients: Preliminary Observations from Urban Baltimore. Robert L. Derbyshire, Eugene B. Brody and Carl Schleifer 245

An Experiment in Teaching Group Psychotherapy. Ruth G. Matarazzo and Iver F. Small 252

Speech Disturbance and Body Movement in Interviews. Donald S. Boomer 263

A Long-Term Follow-Up Study of Neurotic Phobic Patients in a Psychiatric Clinic. Paul Errera and Jules V. Coleman 267

The Treatment of Chronic Frigidity by Systematic Desensitization. Arnold A. Lazarus 272
Mental Deficit, Schizophrenia and the Benton Test. John Nickols 279
Sleep Paralysis in Medical Students. Henry C. Everett 283
Discharge of Psychiatric Patients Against Medical Advice. Richard W. Brush and Rudolf Kaelbling 288
Direct Measurement and Functional Definition of Vocal Hallucinatory Symptoms. Ogden R. Lindsley 293
High Frequency Thermal Induction Lesions of the Brain A. Earl Walker, Joseph J. Adamkiewicz, Charles V. Burton, James M. Mozley and Edward T. Dillon 298
Brief Communication. James L. O'Leary, Paul E. Stohr and LaVerne Erickson 302
Book Reviews 305

No. 4, April 1963

The Development of Six Sound Motion Pictures Simulating Psychotherapeutic Situations. Hans H. Strupp and Joan W. Jenkins 317
Experimental Meditation. Arthur J. Deikman 329
Psychology's Concern With Brain Damage. George A. Talland 344
The Process-Reactive Distinction and Patients' Subculture. Loren J. Chapman and James C. Baxter 352
Vocabulary Deficit in Improved and Unimproved Schizophrenic Subjects. Roy M. Hamlin and Robert E. Jones 360
The Tattooed Man. Joe Yamamoto, William Seeman and Boyd K. Lester 365
Body-Part Size Judgment in Contrasting Intellectual Groups. Franklin C. Shontz 368
The Dissociation-Association Continuum. Herbert Spiegel 374
The Placebo Response: An Experimental Approach. Sidney Gelfand, Leonard P. Ullmann and Leonard Krasner 379
Rheoencephalography: I. Review of the Technique. Kenneth Lifshitz 388
Book Reviews 399
Erratum 419

No. 5, May 1963

Rehabilitation and the Family

Editorial Introduction 421
Introduction: Some Comments on Rehabilitation, the Family Unit and Society. G. J. Sarwer-Foner 422
The Hazy Horizon: A Critical Evaluation of Current Practices in Psychosocial Rehabilitation. Julia A. Mayo and Fritz A. Freyhan 424
Varieties of Family Participation in the Rehabilitation of Released Chronic Schizophrenic Patients. George W. Brooks, William N. Deane, Robert C. Lagor and Barbara B. Curtis 432
Long-Term Community Follow-Up of Formerly Hospitalized Psychotic Patients. Paul Rajotte and Herman C. B. Denber 445
Can the Chronic Schizophrenic Patient Remain in the Community?: A Follow-up Study of Twenty-Four Long-Term Hospitalized Patients Returned to the Community. Margaret M. Wessler and Virginia L. Kahn 455
Prediction of Therapeutic Themes from Observation of Family Interaction Evoked by the 'Revealed Differences' Technique. James L. Titchener and Myra Golden 464
Psychiatric Services in General Hospitals; A Family-Oriented Redefinition. Nea M. Norton, Thomas P. Detre and Henry G. Jarecki 475
Family Interaction as a Factor in Prolonging Hospitalization. Kenneth B. Moore and Newton McCravy, Jr. 485
Methods for Treating Depression Evaluated after the Elapse of One Year. J. R. Wittenborn, Helen Maurer and Marc Plante 492
Conjoint Family Therapy: Its Role in Rehabilitation of the Inpatient and Family. Alexander Gralnick 500
The Use of Transitional Employment in the Rehabilitation of the Psychiatric Patient. John H. Beard, James R. Schmidt and Mary M. Smith 507

No. 6, JUNE 1963
Editorial. Carl Binger 515
The Blood-Brain Barrier in Clinical Disease: A Review. Robert B. Aird and Ronald A. Becker 517
The Poetzl Phenomenon: Some Further Evidence. Sydney E. Pulver and Bennett Eppes 527
The Relationship Between Physiological and Psychological Responsivity: Depression and Galvanic Skin Response. Norman S. Greenfield, Deborah Katz, A. A. Alexander and Robert Roessler 535
Psychopharmacologic Agents: A Clinical Psychiatrist's Individualistic Point of View: Patient and Doctor Variables. Karl Rickels 540
The Effects of Diazepam (Valium®) and Alcohol on Psychomotor Performance. M. Powell Lawton and Burton Cahn 550
The Influence of Doctor's Attitude on the Patient's Response to Antidepressant Medication. Michael H. Sheard 555
Psychotic Behavior as the Initial Indicator of Adult Myxedema. John Logothetis 561
Military Offenses and Juvenile Delinquency. Edward H. Futterman 569
The Cohesive Small Group in the Treatment of Chronic Schizophrenia. Melvin J. Lerner 579
Inability to Validate the Urinary FPN Test for Phenothiazine Drugs: Suggestions As to the Cause of the Discrepancy. Herbert S. Posner and Jerome Levine 591
A Seventeenth-Century Dream Interpreted. Kenneth Dewhurst 594
Brief Communication. William Karliner 597
Book Reviews 599